

ABCS April 2003 Drive

Rainy skies and black clouds didn't hinder our club's monthly drive to Farmhouse Gallery in Unicoi. Antique cars, hit and miss engines, a menagerie of animals wondering about and country music was the order of the day. Even though our British Cars were in the minority, we proudly displayed our colors!

Did anyone else see that white peacock?

By: Judy Penland

Fiddlers and Fiddleheads Festival at the Farmhouse Gallery and Gardens in Unicoi, TN