NEXT MEETING – THURSDAY, June 10, 2004 – RUSH STREET GRILL

By: Herren Floyd

A storm of wind and heavy rain hit us suddenly at our gathering at Gourmet & Co. exactly at our 6:00 PM starting time Wednesday, sending everyone indoors wet. Soon after that, we got a phone call about tornado warnings in Sullivan and Washington counties.

In spite of the storm warnings, there was surprisingly good attendance. We had seventeen British cars and a Miata. Enough people stayed to eat a Gourmet meal to require a quite long table. Allen and Margaret Calcote had planned to come in his MGTF, but Margaret came down with Shingles. Since she is our member-in-charge-of-weather and we have now seen what can happen to the weather when she is sick, we may want to consider just canceling our events whenever she gets sick.

After the storm subsided, Robert Hall, Carl Floyd, and Greg Bowman ventured out in the light rain with Bill Denton to see why his ignition light was staying on in his Austin Healey. An enjoyable time was had by all in spite of the weather.
